DETAILED ACTION

The amendment filed 1/11/05 is acknowledged. Claims 14-18, 21-31 and 33-42 are being considered on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 14-18, 21-31 and 33-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Insertion of the limitation “no more than 2.6 micromoles citrate per gram of protein” does not have support in the as-filed specification. The insertion of this limitation is a new concept because it neither has literal support in the as-filed specification by way of generic disclosure, nor are there specific examples of the newly limited genus which would show possession of the concept of attaining “no more than 2.6 micromoles citrate per gram of protein” with any process other than diafiltration as shown in Tables 1b, 2, and 3 as “non-precipitating conditions”. In addition, it is unclear that a zero concentration is ever achieved. The only one exemplified process having “non-precipitating conditions” is diafiltration wherein this concentration of citrate is achieved using a mono or di-carboxylate or mono or di-carboxylic acid. This is not sufficient support for the new genus of replacing citrate under non-precipitating conditions by processes such as ultrafiltration or any chromatographic process to obtain “no more than 2.6 micromoles citrate per gram of protein” using a mono or di-carboxylate or mono or di-carboxylic acid. This is a matter of written description, not a question of what one of skill in the art would or would not have known. The material within the four corners of the as-filed specification must lead to the generic concept. If it does not, the material is new matter. Thus, the insertion of “no more than 2.6 micromoles citrate per gram of protein” in the present context is considered to be the insertion of new matter for the above reasons. Note also the additional limitation regarding the concentration of “undesired metals” of claims 33-38.

Art Unit: 1651

Please see Gentry Gallery v. Berkline 45 U.S.P.Q.2d 1498 for a discussion related to broadening the claimed invention without support in the as-filed specification. Please see PurduePharma v. Faulding 56 U.S.P.Q.2d 1481 for a discussion related to a failure to describe a claimed generic concept in the narrative portion of the specification, but rather basing support on limitations in examples.

The rejection of claims 31, 33-34 and 41-42 under 35 U.S.C. 102/103 is withdrawn in view of the Teschner declaration wherein applicant presents data to demonstrate that diafiltration alone is not sufficient to obtain a composition as now claimed.

The rejection of claims 14-17, 20-23, 26, 28, 31, and 33-37 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) is withdrawn in view of applicant's amendments and arguments regarding the purity of albumin in the solution treated with caprylate.

The art rejections will be reinstated as appropriate upon removal of the new matter introduced by the instant amendment.

No claim is allowed.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
